

Students will have to:

- edit a short C source code, "hello world"
- load the MPI or the OpenMPI module
- compile the source code
- Edit the job script file (based on SLURM Commands)
 - request/allocate the resource (compute node on partition)
 - provide job name
 - Job File errors and output Name
 - Job owner's information
 - complete path of where the job script resides