1. Download the programs (matMult.c and blockMM.c), the Makefile, and the two BASH scripts.

2. Make sure the BASH scripts are executable (see the chmod command)

3. Generate the output files and plot their contents.

4. Explain why the plot looks the way it does.

5. Write code to generate a three-dimensional array.